FORD BUYS LINCOLN CO. CUTS PRICE

Buys Company at Auction for $8,000,000 and Slashes Prices

NO COMPETITION

Sale of Big Factory for Eight Million Is Accomplished

DETROIT, Feb. 4.—The greatest slash in automobile prices ever announced was made here today by the Lincoln Automobile company immediately after it had been purchased at bankruptcy sale for $8,000,000 by Henry Ford.

Prices of all models were slashed varying from $800 to $1200.

Announcement of the cut was made by Henry M. Leland, president of the concern, who will be retained in charge of the company under Ford's ownership.

The big crowd that assembled for the auction sale today was disappointed, however, in its anticipation of spirited bidding between Ford and representatives of two other interests who had qualified to make offers. The great plant went under the hammer for $8,000,000 to Ford without a contest. E. T. Berger and George B. Judson, the representatives of other interests, did not make an offer.

'HI-Y' BOYS ARE HOSTS TO PARENTS

Baptist Group Hold Banquet and Entertainment

The Baptist group of "Hi Y" boys entertained their parents last night at a real swell event. The affair was a combined banquet and entertainment and was held in the basement of the church. About 70 members of this organization and their parents were on hand to enjoy the good things for body and mind that had been prepared by the social and entertainment committee of the organization.

In a way, this was sort of an educational function. The boys of tnis group are especially proud of the work they are doing. P. L. Hatch, group leader, has mapped out a course of action that has met with universal favor among the youngsters and they are so pleased witgh it that they wanted to show their parents. The parents were more than pleased at the work that is being done by the boys and their leaders.

The banquet was served at 7 o'clock, the tables being arranged in a large "U," the waiters passed within and around it. After the repast of good things, which wound up with generous pieces of pumpkin pie, were partaken of, Robert Frazee, president of the group, who last night served as toastmaster, started the fireworks.

A novel system of introduction, by which each boy was introduced by the president who in turn introduced his guests, was the first "number" on the program.

This was followed by the speech of welcome by Leslie Hatch, this being responded to by Jesse H. Taylor of Eagle Rock. Rex Kelly, county secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was then introduced and very clearly described the aims, objects and work of the Hi Y. organization. Rev. Ernest E. Ford then gave a short talk in which he told why he was interested in the Hi Y movement.

"This movement is one of the greatest thing in the country for keeping the youth from going astray," he said. "The Hi Y takes hold of the young fellow when his mind is in a state of uncertainty and when the romantic and the adventurous spirit is upon him. The purpose of the Hi Y is to hold the youth until he has passed this stage and at the same time instill into his minds truths about God, the Bible and better living in general that would tend to make a better man of him."

P. L. Hatch then told why he took up and is carrying on the work of the Hi Y. Arland McComb, vice-president of the Glendale organization of the Hi Y, gave a very encouraging account of the work that is being done by the Hi Y in Glendale, after which a violin selection was beautifully rendered by Tom Wood.

The weekly Bible lesson was then held, after which various games, in which most of those present participated, were enjoyed.

It was announced that on Friday evening of next week the members of the Baptist group of the Hi Y will, in company with their "lady friends," journey to Alhambra, where they will enjoy a roller skating party.

Cautious Generation to Think Right With Truth Ever Present

This generation is cautioned to think straight, quoting Prof. Robert A. Millikan, Henry James in his comments this evening sayy "One does not bluff in physics."

"Every sane man on the earth knows that he must prish," says Mr. James; "that all of his fellows must perish and together become as dust before the wind. The trouble is that in seeking the spiritual, the narrow mind, the one idea mind, rejects the material."

James W. Foley in "The Listening Post" this evenig after recalling that Benjamin Franklin said that time is the stuff of which life is made, uses this rather beautiful expression. "Memory is the kind of thread upon which we may string the days."

Editorials on timely subjects, Dr. Crane on "The Psychology of Boredom," John Pilgrim on "Luck," scientific shots, wise sayings and other features will be found to interest and instruct you on the editorial page this evening. It is a page that is worth reading every night.

dent body of the school. There were originally three candidates for the office, Paul Hutchinson, Dale Wood and Lucy Strother, a ruling of the faculty to the effect that Hutchinson would not be allowed to run for re-election was the first bomb to explode in the camps of the high school politicians.

The cabinet of the school went into executive session at 10 a. m. on Thursday and remained in conference until 2 p. m.

The proposition of electing the other officers of the student body and postponing the election of a president until the tangle could be unraveled met with the disapproval of the majority of the students. Hutchinson himself cleared up the atmosphere and spread oil on the troubled political waters by withdrawing his name from the ballot. This left the field to Lucy Strother and Dale Wood.

ARBUCKLE THIRD TRIAL PREPARING

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4.—The casting director got busy today preparing for the third return engagement of the Arbuckle-Rappe drama.

With the issuance of the "official statements" from the defense and the prosecution following disagreement of the jury in the second trial, it was assured that Arbuckle must be tried once again on a charge of having taken the life of Virgina Rappe.

That assured, the principals lost no time in making ready.

"We want to go to trial again Monday if it can be arranged," the Arbuckle camp announced.

"Any time," was the word from the district attorney's office.

So again the public will be regaled with the recital of how Roscoe Arbuckle entertained his friends in San Francisco on Labor day.

C. E. BANQUET BY PRESBYTERIANS

The first annual banquet of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church was held Friday night in the hall of the church, with about 50 present. The theme for the whole evening was "Christ Exalted." The color scheme of purple and gold was carried out in the decorations, and the tables were placed to form the letters "C. E." Miss Mildred Elliott was toastmistress and toasts were given for the word "Intermediate" one for each letter. This was followed by a reading by Miss Grace Yarbrough, after which a business meeting was held, presided over by the president, Miss Mildred Elliott. Miss Mildred Thompson and her social committee had charge of the banquet, and they were assisted by several of the mothers. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brown, the latter being superintendent of the Intermediate society, were also present. Games were played and a very pleasant social evening was enjoyed.

TAYLOR SOUGHT FORMER SECRETARY

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 4.—"I'll kill that fellow Sands if ever I lay hands on him."

This threat was directed by William Desmond Taylor, murdered film director, against Edward F. Sands, his former secretary now being sought for questioning in connection with the slaying, according to Claire Windsor, picture star.

"Mr. Taylor, Antonio Moreno, Betty Francisco and I were at dinner at the Ambassador hotel a week ago Thursday," Miss Windsor said. "We spoke of hearing that Mr. Taylor's secretary had rifled his effects while he—Mr. Taylor—was touring Europe.

"'Yes,' Mr. Taylor said, 'he did, and believe me if II ever lay hands on that fellow Sands I'll kill him.'"

Miss Windsor, a former Seattle girl, is expected to testify at the inquest today.

MOVIE AGENCIES CLOSE

DENVER, Feb. 4.—Taking over of distribution of all films by the American Railway Express company will close sixteen separate agencies here and will probably deprive more than 100 persons of their jobs, it was stated here today by motion picture distributors. "DAPPER DAN" IS SOUGHT BY POLICE

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 4.—"Dapper Dan" Collins, two-gun man, master blackmailer is "wanted for questioning", in connection with the murder of William Desmond Taylor.

This was revealed to the United Press exclusively today by private investigators at work on the mysterious slaying of the famous motion picture director.

"Dapper Dan" is now at large, detectives said, with a price of $5,000 on his head following the shooting in New York last May of John H. Reid, well to do manufacturer, at the home of Hazel D. Warner.

"Dapper Dan" has been traced from New York to Denver, from Denver to Salt Lake City and from Salt Lake City to Los Angeles, the investigators asserted.

BAN BANDIT'S WIFE

SEATTLE, Feb. 4.—Mrs. Roy Gardner, wife of the mail bandit, is scheduled to appear at a local theatre next week, but her appearance will be barred if the protests of government officials and church organizations are heeded by Mayor Hesketh and the board of theatre censors.

Mrs. Gardner will not be permitted to appear in Yakima, where she has been billed for a vaudeville engagement Sunday. Mayor R. D. Rovig placed the ban on the act in the interests of public morals, he announced.

Minus Forethought

The County Public Utilities Board did a [illegible] deed, rather a thoughtless thing, when it refu[illegible] application for the operation of a municipal bu[illegible] Angeles.

Daring because there is a sinister stir of r[illegible]m in the body politic. There is a pointing of fie[illegible]ers at corporations and public servants.

Undoubtedly, the Board carefully consi[illegible]he application. That it gave its best thought to[illegible] to the claims of the railway people to a propert[illegible] by reason of its investment. We would not deba[illegible].

The railway people have heavy investm[illegible] the streets. They have certain rights. Their st[illegible]ders are the people, just as the people of Glendal[illegible]lendale's stockholders. So it is a question of[illegible]s of stockholders.

But—read in the light of radical lamp[illegible]ould appear the people of Glendale are refused[illegible]e of any street for a service vehicle so long as a r[illegible] runs on it. That a railway therefore has a mono[illegible]dded to the investment conferred upon it.

Such a reading of the record is bad. [illegible]iably bad, for the atmosphere of country thought.

We feel it would have been more profit[illegible]r the railway people to cordially welcome the b[illegible] than to have opposed the permit. It might cost[illegible] few dollars a day. But the few dollars would[illegible] well invested in making hundreds of dollars' w[illegible] good will. It might be that the fleet of cars go[illegible]nd from Los Angeles can be organized to transp[illegible]hat wish to go.

This is of course radicalism. B[illegible] the war, radicalism is very, very prevalent—a[illegible]y so.

LOCAL LEGION MEN APPLAUD STAND OF MAC NIDER

Determination of National Commander to "Carry on" Approved.

The Glendale Post of the American Legion which held an enthusiastic business session Friday night, expressed in no uncertain terms its approval of the stand taken by Hanford S. MacNider of Mason City, Iowa, national commander of the American Legion when he declined appointment to the seat in the United States senate vacated by Senator Kenyon, who has been appointed to the federal bench by President Harding.

When a motion was offered that a committee be appointed to draft a resolution of commendation to be sent to Commander MacNider, it was received with applause and by a standing vote was unanimously adopted. The committee appointed was composed of Thomas D. Watson, chairman; Charles B. Guthrie and Owen Emery.

At its conventions, ever since its organization, the Legion has put itself on record as non-partisan and opposed to political entanglements. It has remained for Commander MacNider to prove the sincerity of his commitment to that policy by a sacrifice few men would make, and which has in fact been made by but one other man in the history of our country, the refusal of the highest office in the gift of the nation after the presidency. In declining he stated that he preferred to serve [illegible] country and his comrades in [illegible] where he now is.

There [illegible] pensations. The action [illegible] the Glendale Post will p[illegible] duplicated all over this [illegible]nd Commander MacNi[illegible]ve a place in the he[illegible] comrades he would n[illegible] filled but for this de[illegible]n of his loyalty to their

TOOL THIEVES ROB HUDSON AGENCY

Someone is evidently planning to start a machine shop in Glendale and also figure on obtaining the tools to do this free of charge. Early this morning the Glendale Hudson and Essex Motor company reported to the police department that someone had entered the garage during the night and stolen a tap and die outfit and a bolt cutter with an aggregated value of more than $40.

Coker & Taylor also reported the theft of several tools from a vacant house where plumbers for that company have been working.

MRS. SMART ASKS AID OF W. C. T. U.

Union Holds Interesting Meeting at White Residence

The Glendale W. C. T. U. had the largest and most enthusiastic meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. John Robert White on North Orange street Friday afternoon. Mrs. Ruby Smart, president, who has been ill for the past two months, was well enough to preside, and read the scripture lesson of the day with words of helpful comment. Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler, state president, who was the guest of honor, offered an inspiring prayer and Mrs. A. M. Draper sang very beautifully the gospel hymn "His Eyes Are On the Sparrow."

Mrs. Smart presented an appeal from the national organization for the placing in the windows of members of a neat card in character like those used during the war, appealing to patriots to support the movement to enforce the eighteenth amendment.

A very beautiful violin solo was contributed by Mrs. C. E. Swartzfager with Mrs. A. Belle Johnston at the piano, and then the special guests of the afternoon were presented, Mrs. Wheeler, state president; Mrs. Hattie C. Young, state secretary, and Miss Marie M. Yoeman, county president.

Mrs. Yoeman expressed her pleasure in being a guest in the home of Assemblyman John Robert White and Mrs. White, who stands for so much in the community.

Mrs. Young spoke on scientific temperance and especially praised the action of Oliver Charles Hughes and ex-President Taft in refusing large sums of money from the liquor interests to have the eighteenth amendment declared unconstitutnonal by the supreme court.

The passage of the law requiring the scientific teaching of temperance in the public schools, passed thirty-five years ago through the efforts of the W. C. T. U., was referred to with the statement that if we keep the eighteenth amendment we must see that this teaching is continud. Said she: "We are facing a crisis in this country and it is now a question of law or lawlessness. Eighty-five per cent of those arrested for bootlegging are foreigners. We must change the sentiments of children who are born of foreign parents by this teaching in the public schools."

Mrs. Young then introduced Mrs. Wheeler, who charmed and held the rapt attention of her hearers. She gave her famous lceture, "Lands Under the Southern Cross," which described a tour she took a year ago when she was chosen by the National W. C. T. U. to go to Australia, New Zealand and the South Sea islands to tell them the truth about prohibition. She told of the beauties of the islands, the flowers, the coral reefs but it was their 5,000,000 inhabitants in which she was most interester. The great amount of drunkenness among women as well as men she found very shocking. She discovered that for three years money had been sent from the United States to spread the propaganda that prohibition does not prohibit and that we cannot enforce the eighteenth amendment to the federal constitution. Now, she said, "we must send American money to help the dry fight. The best way to help the islands, she declared, is to enforce our own prohibition laws.

In reviewing the work in Southern California she particularly commended the Francis Willard Home for Girls in Los Angeles and the San Diego Home for Enlisted Men. In conclusion she declared if all the Christian women can be mobilized in this fight, the liquor interests will lay down their arms and in that connection referred to the campaign to secure the passage of proper enforcement measures at the polls next November.

Mrs. A. M. Draper then sang a Scotch song, "My Bairnie," and Mrs. Retta K. Nelson gave a vocal number with violin obligato by Mrs. Swartzfager and piano accompanimen tby Mrs. oJhnston.

REEVES IS KIDNAPPED BY FRIENDS

Pasadena Spanish War Veterans Take Him Home

HOLD HOUSE PARTY

City Manager Surprised by Forty Friends in Automobiles

When W. H. Reeves, city manager of Glendale, arrived at the former Tropico city hall last night to address a meeting of the Men's club on the sewer situation in Glendale, he was met at the door by two friends and former comrades during the Spanish-American war, who asked him to get through with his address as soon as possible, as they had some important business they wished him to assist in.

This request did not at all seem strange to Mr. Reeves, as both men want to locate here and Mr. Reeves has been devoting his spare time in helping them find a proper location for starting a business.

Mr. Reeves asked the chairman if it would be possible for him to make his speech at the beginning of the program, as he had some important business to attend to. This was done, and after the talk by Mr. Reeves, he was whisked to his home, where he found a long line of machines before his home at 500 East Maple street. The trio entered the house and Mr. Reeves was confronted by almost the entire membership of the Pasadena post of the United Spanish War Veterans, of which he is a member. They had decided to pay a visit to Comrade Reeves, and deciding on this, lunches were packed, families gathered together and the trip made to Glendale. There wert about 50 guests present.

The party made merry until past midnight, when the members left for Pasadena, after congratulating Comrade Reeves on the work that has already been cone toward organizing a post of the veterans in Glendale.

JUDGE LOWE HAS REPORT ON SEWAGE

Judge F. H. Lowe has a report by engineers from all parts of the civilized world on the advancement and experiments with the activated sludge system of sewage disposal. The reports indicate that the system is a success and has met with the approval of the health department of the city or nation in which it was installed.

Judge Lowe said, "It is interesting to read that through the use of compressed air in the operation of this system the affluent and solid matter or sludge in the city sewage can be purified and rendered absolutely odorless within a period of seven hours.

"This sewage can be turned to a revenue for the city by the use of the activated sludge system as indicated in the report. The report states that the solid matter in the city sewage, after treatment in the purification process can be compressed into bricks that are of considerable value as fertilizer. This fertilizer sells for as much as $15 and $20 per ton. That is a higher price than is paid for any other form of fertilizer."

CITY MANAGER IS HEARD AT TROPICO

Last evening Mr. Reeves addressed the Men's club of the Tropico Presbyterian church, speaking principally on the sewer problem and the interurban railway rate situation. He believes that desirable prospective citizens hesitate to locate in Glendale on account of lack of a sewer system and that business goes to Hollywood and other suburbs of Los Angeles with lower car fares instead of coming to Glendale.

He paid a tribute to the present city council which is conscientiously striving to plan for the welfare of all sections of the city.

Mr. Glyndon Smith, a professional magician of Los Angeles, entertained with several tricks which to the uninitiated seem impossible.

Music was furnished by a male trio and at the close of the program sandwiches and coffee were enjoyed by all.

BURBANK CHORAL SEEKS MEMBERS

As a means of strengthening its organization and giving the music-loving public an opportunity to cooperate with it in a practical way, the Burbank Choral club has inaugurated associated memberships which can be taken out by persons not qualified to take an active part in the work of the chorus. It is a plan which has worked well in other places where such organizations are in existence, and much good to the club and the community is predicted as a result of this policy.

THE ARK SOME OTHER FOLKS SAILED ON

By JOHN BARTON

(Copyright, 1921, by Associated Newspapers)

"A walnut for your thoughts!" giggled the Widow Squirrel, for Ripple Beaver had heaved a great sigh as Dr. Muskrat paused to wet his throat. It was very dry from talking, even though his subject was one of the wettest in history—the Great Flood when all the world was drowned. Except those aboard Noah's Ark. Or—the ones he was telling of!

"I was just wondering if we hated the thought of having a man lay a hand on us on account of the way Shem's baby hauled our great-great-grandparents around."

"But they weren't," Dr. Muskrat objected. "They were your great uncle and aunt. Your grandparents were fast asleep when the rain began, way up on the tip-top of a tall mountain. So the flood had been rising for a couple of moons before they knew anything was going on. Then the waves began to boom against the rocks, and swirl around the roots of the tree they were snoozing in. That woke them. They peered out. And what a sight met their eyes!

"What a sight! A muddy ocean tossing where they used to see only the morning mists with the peaks of the tall pines looking tiny as Christmas trees, where they peeked through. But no trees stood up through this stormy sea. It wrenched from their roots, threw them over its shoulder and carried them along.

"Higher, higher it came on the great oak where your grandparents sat cowering. It washed them out of their hole; they had to climb to its highest limbs. And what terrible work it was to hang on up there! For the oak was such an almighty big one the waves had to do some rough wrestling. At last it quaked, leaned, tottered. A splash doused the water all over the poor little beasts who had such a terrible awakening from their peaceful winter dreams. They found themselves sailing off in an ark of their own, the twiggy tree-top.

"Higher, higher it came on the great oak where your grandparents sat cowering."

"But that wasn't all. While they were clinging there in the wet dark, afraid to move—smash! A great tall pine crashed almost on top of them. 'Oh-h-h!' one shrieked. 'My tail, my tail! It's pinched right off me.'

"'Oh-h-h!' gasped the other horafresh. 'It can't move. It's still on Turn 'round till I see.'

"'Oh-h-h!' the first screamed afresh. 'It cant' move. It's still on me. But it's beginning to swell. It feels bigger than I am already!' Wasn't that a terrible state to be in? But it was all for the best, just the same."

NEXT STORY: WHO THE SEALS ONCE WERE.

BRISK MARKET FOR USED CARS

"There is an exceptionally brisk demand at this time for low and medium priced used cars," declared the Velie Glendale Motors company this morning. "The demand for the moderate priced car at this time is greater than it has been since we first came to Glendale. The people of moderate means seem to be realizing the fact that more pleasure can be secured by motoring than in any other way.

"Another reason for the unusual demand for the moderate priced car is the increased fare over the Pacific Electric between Glendale and Los Angeles. People are making the daily trip to Los Angeles now via automobile rather than pay the high fares over the P. E. They find it is cheaper to own their own machines than to pay the excessive fares, and in addition, they have the privilege of using their cars for pleasure purposes. While there is some demand for larger cars, the machine selling at $750 and under is finding a more ready sale."

The Velie Glendale Motors has just taken possession of its new home at 233 South Brand boulevard. The 1922 models of the Velie car will soon be out and as soon as they are issued this firm will have them on display.

INSPECT SELF STARTER.

Every self-starter should be inspected every month, also the steering wheel and steering knuckles should be given a test at the same time, so as to make sure that they are working in true form.

To ascertain the positive and negative terminals of a battery by means of a glass of water, the water should have some salt or electrolyte in it to make it a better conductor. The wires are placed in the solution, and care should be taken not to let the ends touch. Hydrogen bubbles will form on the negative wire.

The United States has 266,000 miles of railway, while China, with an area one-third greater and a population nearly four times as great, has only 6800.

When a tire gradually softens, it is reasonable to suspect an air valve leak. In this case, turn the wheel so that the stem points downward, remove the cover but allow the cap to remain on. Hold a tumbler of water against the rim, so that the valve stem is immersed in the water. If there is a slow leak at the valve, bubbles will show. Next, remove the cap and try the same experiment.

A SONG ON MILO WHEAT by T. W. McConnell

You ask me, friends; why really, now,
I haven't much to say;
But I am sure that Milo Wheat
Is for the best today.
Now, some things let me speak about
That you may plainly see
When folks once taste of MILO WHEAT
You'll need no other plea.
For folks who eat this food,
I'm sure you will hear say:
"For strength, health and every ill,
It's best, we know today;
We're living now on MILO WHEAT,
Our bank account will grow,
For we can have a good square meal
For three cents now, you know.
You know our days are perilous times
When all will have a test,
And they will surely want to eat
The cheapest and the best.
It will not be so very long
Till you will hear the call
For MILO WHEAT from every class,
Both rich, poor, large and small.

SCHOOL ELECTION BRINGS OUT VOTE

cannot figure out just which candidate will be elected. The voting took place yesterday and the ballot boxes sealed until later today, when the formal announcement as to who was elected will be made. The votes were counted yesterday after the polls closed but it was decided that the name of the new president of the student body would not be announced until later.

MISS LUCY STROTHERS

According to the dope Lucy Strother seems to have the solid support of the girls' league, while a similar organization among the boys is apparently backing Dale Wood. These two organizations control the majority of the votes in the school and the minority is pretty evenly divided. Whoever is elected will win the election by a very close majority and the unsuccessful candidate will have the satisfaction of knowing that it was a close fight.

Purely Personal

If the fuel in the carburetor is set at the proper level, it will cause various reactions. If the level is too high, it will flood the carburetor; if it is too low, it will result in a lean mixture and difficult starting. For satisfactory operation, it is important that the float be adjusted so that the gasoline level will be about a thirty-second of an inch below the outlet of the nozzle.

The color of the flame of combustion indicates the mixture of gasoline and air that is being used. To see this requires an open priming cock and one cylinder while the engine is running and it can best be seen in the dark or at any rate dusk. An orange-colored flame indictates too lean a mixture.

PLAN TO REPLACE ELECTRIC LINES

City Manager Points to System of Higher Efficiency

That the motor type of transportation is rapidly replacing the electric lines in Southern California and other sections of this state and in all parts of the United States, and that the city of Glendale can operate a municipally owned bus line to Los Angeles that will successfully compete with the Pacific Electric line, was indicated in an interview with City Manager Reeves yesterday, in which he stated:

"The modern auto bus is a self-contained unit. The railroad commission of this state, in its latest findings admits that auto bus transportation has come to stay. This is true for the following reasons, among others:

"The service is more flexible; speedier, in general more comfortable; less costly, and seems to be preferred by the public as being a more modern development of the transportation business.

"Consider its cost as compared with that of the street railway. In the first place, the electric railway has the copper trolley wire, costing about 18 cents a pound; the iron span wires and guy wires; the poles, which have greatly increased in cost since the war, and the ties, which have gone up about 300 per cent, according to Pacific Electric officials, and the expensive steel rails. But this is not all. Next we have the cars themselves. Each car costs from ten to twenty thousand dollars, as compared with auto buses at from five to eight thousand dollars.

"Then we have the heavy copper feeders running to the power house, the highly expensive machinery in the power house, and the high cost of operation of the same. It is evident at a glance that such an enormously expensive system cannot hope to long compete with the lighter, cheaper and more modern auto bus system of passenger transportation. Even the Pacific Electric has admitted this and has begun the operation of bus line feeders at various points of the system. It is also popularly reputed to have purchased a controlling interest in a number of existing interurban lines.

"The state railroad commission appears to have very kindly come to the aid of the Pacific Electric in this respect by furnishing to them at no cost a very complete and detailed report on the operations of existing bus lines in the state, together with information as to how to evade the payment of the state franchise tax, by running these bus lines under an assumed name, and thus, in effect, depriving the state of revenue which it otherwise would obtain from the corporation. The information as to how this could be done is obtained in the following clause of the state railroad commission's report on motor bus transportation:

"'Because of the heavy tak imposed upon electric railroad utilities (5 per cent of gross revenue) it is probable that any motor bus lines which the Pacific Electric might establish will be through a subsidiary or affiliated company, under which plan the taxes will amount to the same as any individual operating motor vehicles under similar conditions and will, in most cases, be very much less than if operated by the railway company.'"

PRE-OPENING SALE AT EAGLE GLEN

The great pre-opening sale of lots in Eagle Glen Heights will start tomorrow, January 5. The tract is located at the east end of Broadway, one block from the new high school site and three blocks from a grammar school. It is one of the finest homesite locations in the eastern section of the city, being 900 feet above the sea.

It is expected that the sale of lots in this tract which is being put on by the J. Harvey McCarthy company, will be brisk, for the tract embodies everything that would tend to make it an ideal place for the suburban home.

Attention is drawn to the fact that the improvements that are planned for this tract are of the very finest. There will be seventy-foot streets, these being equipped with curbs and being drained well. These streets will have excellent foundation and will have the best possible surface. Gas, water and electricity are also included, as are parkways set with beautiful trees, six-foot sidewalks, etc.

Caucasians only are allowed on this tract. The restriction on single residences is $5000 and the buildings must be set from 20 to 35 feet from the front property lines. No shacks or temporary buildings will be allowed.

These lots will be sold on easy terms—one-fourth down, the balance in 6, 12, 18, 24 and 30 months, with interest at 7 per cent. All contracts will be made with the Hellman Commercial Trust and Savings bank of Los Angeles. Lots in this tract run as low as $1400.

Concerning this tract Mr. McCarthy said this morning:

"In 20 years' experience as a subdivider, during which I have developed 24 high class residential tracts, I have never offered to the public a subdivision that I believe had greater value or greater attracitveness and convenience for handsome and comfortable homes than are found in Eagle Glen Heights."

The tract office for the Eagle Glen tract is located at the east end of Broadway.

Mrs. Roberts in Charge.—Mrs. Warren Roberts will have charge of the program of the music section of the Tuesday afternoon club at its next meeting which will be held Friday afternoon, February 10, at the home of Mrs. Frank Arnold on East Lomita.

SUNDAY SERVICE AT EAGLE ROCK CHURCHES

"Do We Know Anything of the Hereafter?" will be the subject of Rev. E. Morgan Isaac's sermon Sunday morning, in the Congregational Church. He will take up the question of immortality, whether science has added to doubt or to faith in that respect, and will consider the belief in individuality after death and other pertinent questions, also explaining how the church came by the traditional idea of heaven. "The Mind of a Nation," will be given at the evening hour, beginning at 7:30. Sunday school meets at 9:45, with the exception of Mrs. Fisk's Bible class of adults, which convenes at 10 o'clock. Young people's meeting at 6:30.

Dr. John Hedley, pastor of the Methodist church, will continue his series of sermons on "The Prayer Life of the Christian," Sunday morning, treating of "Prayer in the Name of Christ." A brief talk to the children precedes the morning sermon. The subject in the evening will be "Three Kinds of Fear," namely, the fear of man, the fear of self, and the fear of God. Epworth League at 6:30, will continue the story of the book, "John Wesley, Jr." showing what the M. E. board of home missions and church extension is doing throughout the country.

Rev. B. B. Weatherall, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will preach in the morning on "Cutting the World in Two with a Hatchet." In the evening Rev. John W. Creighton, D. D., principal of the True Light middle school in Canton, China, will deliver an address. Sunday school convenes at 9:30, and Christian Endeavor meetings at 5:15 and 6:15.

Communion will be observed in St. Barnabas Episcopal church at 7:15 a. m. tomorrow and all recent communicants are specially requested to be present. In the evening the rector, Rev. Robert Renison will preach on "The Light of the World." There will also be a service at 11 a. m. A young people's fellowship organization is being considered in this church and Rev. Scoville, field secretary of Sunday schools for this district will announce the first meeting during the evening service.

GLENDALE BASKET BALL TEAM WINS

The basketball team of the Glendale companies of the National Guard won another game last night. This time the victims were the team from the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company. The score was 21 to 16 in favor of Glendale.

The game was scheduled as the first to be played under the A. A. U. The failure of the A. A. U. officials to attend the game is responsible for the game not counting under the A. A. U. schedule. The game will be played again at the end of the season. Jensen and Price of the Glendale team starred as usual and "Brick" Wilde, of Glendale played a fast, flashy game seeming to be everyplace at once.

At the end of the first half the score stood 6 to 6. Right after the second half started the Los Angeles team seemed to get a slight edge on Glendale and ran the score to 12 to 6 in favor of Los Angeles. The guardsmen reversed the order of things and the final score tells the story.

SPANISH WAR VETS PLAN POST HERE

Glendale veterans of the Spanish-American war are planning to organize a post of the United Spanish War Veterans in this city. A meeting will be held in the council chamber of the city hall on Wednesday night at 730 p. m., for the purpose of perfecting this organization.

A committee composed of W. B. Kelly, Dr. W. C. Mabry, William Phelon, William H. Reeves and Cameron D. Thom are at work on the plans for organizing the post here and have already sent out more than 80 cards to veterans of this war who are at present living in Glendale. While the committee in charge of arrangements has already a large list of names of men in this city who are eligible for membership in this organization, they feel sure there are other veterans of this war living in Glendale and it is the wish of the committee that these former comrades attend the organization meeting whether they receive a card or not.

ELROD ADOPTS CITY SLOGAN AS OWN

Since the adoption of the new slogan, "Glendale, the Fastest Growing City in America," by the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, the Elrod Real Estate company, 1651 Garden avenue, is the first institution to send it broadcast throughout the counrty. This firm, which is composed of Mrs. Edith Elrod and Ronald A. Elrod, has placed on its letterhead:

"When you come to Glendale, California (the fastest growing city in America) see Elrod for bargains."

VOTERS REGISTER HERE

The officials in the city hall say people are slow in coming in to be registered and request prompt action on the part of everyone who have not been called on to register at home. Residents af the first and second precincts may register at the Sunshine grocery, with the proprietor, Mrs. C. M. Streit. There will be an election for city trustees in April.

Chapter L Entertainment—Chapter L. of the P. E. O. will be entertained next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. G. Huntley.

89 NEW MEMBERS JOIN CHURCH AID AT EAGLE ROCK

The reception given by the Congregational church on Wednesday evening to the 89 new members received into the church during the past year was a happy occasion, notable for its informality and good fellowship, like that of one big family. The pastor, Rev. E. Morgan Isaac, welcomed the newcomers and expressed the belief that, aided by their efforts in the various lines of church work, greater things than ever before would be accomplished during the current year. He placed the desired accession of new members for 1922 at 100.

An excellent program of music and readings was rendered and was principally the work of new members. There was a quartette of saxaphone, piano, flute and violin by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Westmoreland, Mrs. J. E. Stanton and Eloise Stanton, the latter a wee girl who already shows remarkable talent as a violinist; a baritone solo by Wm. Ledden, accompanied by his sister, a saxaphone solo by Mr. Westmoreland, accompanied by his wife, an imitation cornet solo by Mrs. G. W. Sautter, a contralto solo by Miss Doorthy Ledden, a duet by Mrs. Paul Elderkin and Miss Ledden, and readings by Mrs. C. W. Young, long a member of the church and a delightful interpreter of poetry, and Mrs. M. L. Marshall, an impersonator of note. Mrs. Young chose several of James W. Foley's poems and Mrs. Marshall recited Joaquin Miller's famous "Sail On—Sail On—and On." Fruit punch and delicious home-made cake were served at the close of the entertainment.

Parent-Teacher Association

Nearly a hundred mothers and teachers attended the monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher association, in the Central school building, on Wednesday afternoon, showing a gratifying interest in matters under discussion at the present time. Reports were heard from the committees assigned to ascertain the consensus of opinion at the east and west ends of the city with regard to forming auxiliary associations, to meet in their respective schoolhouses and form a federation with the parent association at the center. A large majority in each district, it was stated, are in favor of the plan, and it is expected that action will be taken soon to that effect.

The principal speaker of the afternoon was Dr. W. O. Johnson, who resides in Eagle Rock at 225 West Ridgeway avenue and is connected with the Los Angeles county probation service. His topic was the picture show evil as manifested in the attendance and often rough behavior of children unchaperoned at the second performance of the evening. The city trustees in every community should cooperate, he said, with the citizens in striving to control the class of pictures shown. Mrs. Berry of Los Angeles, representing the United Theaters company, which has leased the playhouse about to be erected in Eagle Rock, stated that the company has high ideals and aims to raise the standard of moving pictures. They ask for cooperation in the effort to creat a desire for such pictures. The theatre here, which is thought will open in May, is the fourth one in a chain that the company intends to operate throughout the country, the others being at Catalina, Anaheim, and Alhambra. The Parent-Teacher association will book pictures, as it has in the past, for every Friday night until the end of the school year.

MASON TIRES HAVE REAL VALUE

"Everyone who has ever had anything to do with the operation of an automobile realizes that Mason tires are real tires," said Mr. Lyman, of Lyman & Lund company, 143 South Brand boulevard, Glendale agents for the Mason tire. "Every since being placed on the market the Mason tire has been one of the best tire investments. Those who have been using these tires are its most enthusiastic boosters, for the Mason is a tire that wears and wears and wears. No tire on the market, regardless of cost, can outwear it.

"The army of Mason users in Glendale is growing every week. In addition to the best of material the prices are right. In fact, they are much lower than many makes of tires of like quality. No roads are too rough for the Mason, and no speed is too speedy."

People who never get down to business seldom get up in the world.

USED CAR SALE GATHERS SPEED

The used car sale that is being conducted by the Packer Auto company, Colorado and Brand, is gathering momentum as it goes. he first day of this sale was more than satisfactory to the promoters but the second day is developing sales activity that is proving unprecedented. The manner in which this sale is being received by the people of Glendale is shown in the fact that when the Packer company opened its doors for business this morning a number of customers were waiting. Within a short time the shom room and used car lot, immediately to the north, were the scene of purring motors and much automobile talk.

There is only a day and a half left of this sale—Saturday afternoon and Sunday. It will certainly pay the fellow who lives in Glendale or vicinity and who is thinking of getting a car in the near future to look over the stock of used machines. It costs nothing to look and very little to buy.

If your tenant cannot fulfill his contract go to law if you must—but go to the advertising columns too for the new tenant.

HEWITT TOUCHED BY BEAUTY OF HAWAII

Owner of the Glendale Laundry Tells of His Trip

W. E. Hewitt, owner and manager of the Glendale laundry and owner of a beautiful home at 911 East Randolph street, returned

W. H. HEWITT

Wednesday evening from a trip of three weeks in the Hawaiian islands. So far as Mr. Hewitt was concerned the trip was "impromptu." On January 10 he was surprised to receive a call from his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wouters of Canada. The visitors announced that they were on their way to Honolulu and requested that Mr. Hewitt go with them. The suggestion struck Mr. Hewitt right where he lives and before anyone was aware of it, he was ready to go.

The start was made January 11 and the party sailed from San Francisco the next day, arriving in Honolulu January 17. From the moment the party arrived on the island there was something doing.

On January 19 the party went to the city of Hilo, from which a number of side trips were enjoyed. There were many remarkable features about this as well as the other islands and the visitors were reluctant to leave. The party returned January 22 to Honolulu. The city of Hawaii was visited, and there were many never-to-be-forgotten features found there, as well as in the surrounding country. The party left Honolulu January 25 and arrived in San Francisco January 31.

"There are few people who realize the magnitude of a trip to the Hawaiian islands," said Mr. Hewitt this morning. "Most people think of this trip as they do a jaunt over to Catalina island, but after they have been on the steamer six days and six nights, practically the same length of time it takes to cross the Atlantic, they realize they have been going somewhere. It is anything but an afternoon jaunt.

"So far as the islands themselves are concerned the only thing I can say is that they are wonderful. They are remarkable tropical islands, where pineapples, cocoanuts and sugar cane grow. One of the remarkable things about the islands is their almost entire lack of birds. With very rare exceptions the only birds seen there are the minor birds. The other birds were killed for their feathers. These feathers were used for the manufacture of coats for the kings and princes. In each coat the feathers from more than 100 birds were used. There is one coat of this character in Hawaii that has a valuation of $1,000,000. For this reason there is hardly a bird, except the miner bird, left on the islands.

"Another point that impresses the Californian is the scarcity of flowers on the islands. There are a number of tropical trees such as the banyan tree, which in growth and appearance is very similar to the oak. One feature about this tree is that it has a shoot that grows out of the center of the tree. On the end of this shoot is a mammoth bunch of foliage, which bends it over as it grows. When this foliage touches the ground, it becomes rooted and sends up another lot of shoots. This is without doubt the most wonderful tree on the islands.

"The mammoth sugar plantations of Hawaii were visited, as were Cocoanut Grove, Green Lake, the mammoth lava beds. Another remarkable thing on this island is the lava tree. In years gone by the lava completely covered these trees, but as they continued to grow they forced their way through the lava and some of them are now many feet above it, presenting a very unusual appearance.

"The Hawaiian islands are overrun with Japanese and within a generation or two there will, according to present prospects, be few people on the islands except Japanese. This is one of the drawbacks to the islands as an American possession. At this time many of the most beautiful homes and plantations are owned by descendants of the missionaries, who acquired this land and kept it for their children.

"Our party was entertained at dinner by the Pan-American club. A feature of this occasion was that the Japanese statesmen who were returning home after attending the peace conference at Washington, were present. In their addresses they stated that they were very well pleased with the outcome of the conference. The impression that they conveyed was that Japan generally felt that things had been arranged in a very satisfactory manner.

"The Salvation Army is doing a wonderful work on the islands, and there is no organization that is held in such high esteem by everyone on the island. They command the respect of all. Miss Eva Booth, commander of the army, was on our boat both on the outgoing and incoming trip.

"The return trip on the boat was a very rough one. We were told that it was the roughest experienced by the Maui, the name of the steamer on which we made the trip, in years. We were eight hours late in arriving at San Francisco. While there was no serious damage done, the boat was battered up a little. On one occasion a large wave broke completely over the ship, caving in the windows of the social hall and flooding that department.

"So far as the trip is concerned we were highly delighted with it. Every minute of the time we were away was filled with pleasure. The management on the boat provided entertainment so that there were no dull moments en route. To any one who desires a real outing I can not recommend too highly a trip to the Hawaiian Isands."

STARDUST COMES TO THE T. D. L.

The motion picture, "Stardust," suggested by Miss Hurst's powerful novel by the same name and adapted for the screen by Anthony Paul Kelly, is now a finished product with charming Hope Hampton in the starring role. It will be the First National attraction at the T. D. & L. theatre today and tomorrow.

Not only is "Stardust" a living vital thing on the screen today, but it is also to be dramatized for the stage. As a motion picture production, it is said to equal and surpass the great "Humoresque."

In addition to "Sardust," the T. D. & L. theatre will present "Free and Easy," a comedy sensation, Kinograms of world events, "What's the Limit" cartoon of Laugns. George Olsene will play by request. This show is a great show. Harry Grillilier, motion picture comedian of Mack Sennett fame is one of the head liners in the vaudeville bill at the T. D. & L. theatre today. His patter and chatter causes many a laugh, likewise his funny songs. Oscar Briggs' sketch, "The Lobly Lizzard" is also comical and one of the featured acts. The program of the entire five acts may be said to be practically all comedy except the "Musical Hiwians." The bill is exceptionally good.

ARMS CONFERENCE OPPOSES PACT

CONTINENTAL HALL, Washington, Feb. 4.—The Washington conference today formally approved sweeping covenants to govern the future activities of the powers in China.

This action of the conference, designed to insure peace in the Far East brings to an end all the deliberations of the great conference. Only the signing of the pacts and a farewell address by President Harding, Monday remains.

Nobody believes in lying, but until something better is offered what is poor human nature to do when it is neither wise nor expedient to tell the truth?—Chicago Daily News.

Theodore Robers, Lois Wilson and Conrad Nagle, is worth the price of admission alone. It tells an absorbing story well, is exceptionally directed and played by a wonderful cast. It is well worth seeing and is an enjoyable show clear through.

USE SULPHUR TO HEAL YOUR SKIN

Broken Out Skin and Itching Eczema Helped Over Night

For unsightly skin eruptions, rash or blotches on face, neck, arms or body, you do not have to wait for relief from torture or embarrassment, declares a noted skin specialist. Apply a little Mentho-Sulphur and improvement shows next day.

Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation. The moment you apply it healing begins. Only those who have had unsightly skin troubles can know the delight this Mentho-Sulphur brings. Even fiery, itching eczema is dried right up.

Get a small jar from any good druggist and use it like cold cream. —Adv.

AMERICAN LEGION TO HOLD BALL AT INSTALLATION

Induction of New Officers of Organization to Be Social Event

At the regular meeting of Glendale post, American Legion, Friday night many business matters of no small interest were considered but the big thing was the announcement that a conference of officers, executive committee and members had been called for Friday night, February 10, to make definite plans for a permanent Legion home.

An appeal for funds for "Near East relief" was discussed, but because of the demands upon the treasury made by the work the post is doing for the relief of ex-service men, a recommendation that members make individual donations was adopted.

A favorable vote was taken on the proposition to hold an inaugural ball some Friday night in February at Legion hall in honor of the new officers, tickets to be priced at $1.

Committees reported on Legion activities, and announcement was made that on February 19 there will be an interpost meeting in Los Angeles of all commanders and adjutants.

A committee, of which Gordon Clayton was made chairman, was appointed to wait on the Elks' lodge, requesting it to form an Elks-Legion band.

Announcement was made that the high school gymnasium had been secured for two nights a week, Monday and Wednesday, for Legion basketball games.

As a means of promoting acquaintance the post voted to purchase large buttons to be worn by members and visitors on which their names would be inscribed.

The executive committee was commended for the very business-like manner in which it has entered upon its duties, by a vote of thanks.

The $10,000,000 state bond issue, which will provide a fund to finance loans to aid ex-service men in buying homes, was discussed, and a committee was appointed to assist the state committee.

Commander McBryde reported that a wire had already been sent to Washington on behalf of the post recommending the passage of the "compensation bill."

A motion that members of N. P. Banks post, G. A. R., be invited to attend all open meetings of the Legion post, passed unanimously.

Chairman T. D. Watson of the sick and relief committee reported, and was authorized to invite the public through publicity, but not through personal solicitation, to share in the work of taking care of the needs of ex-service men and their families.

FAR EAST PACTS REVEALED WORLD

CONTINENTAL HALL, Washington, Feb. 4.—The work of the Washington conference to remove the danger of war in the Far East was laid before the world today.

In its sixth open meeting today the conference held its final work session exactly twelve weeks from the opening day when Secretary of State Hughes dropped his famous "bomb shell," the drastic American proposal for limitation of naval armament.

Sir Richard Cooper, M. P. for Walsall since 1910, will not seek re-election, but his wife has been invited to contest as Unionist candidate and has accepted, to the delight of the Unionists in Walsall. This photopragh of Lady Cooper was made several weeks ago in her room.

BEST MATERIAL IN CHEVROLET IS CERTIFIED

"There is no car on the market today that has better material emboied in its construction than has the Chevrolet," said O. W. Tarr, one of the proprietors of the Chevrolet agency at 510 East Broadway. "It is a member of the General Motors corporation, by which five of the largest and best cars on the market today are made. All of these cars are well-known to the general public and are considerably higher in price than the Chevrolet. This fact assures the buyer of a Chevrolet car, regardless of what model is chosen, of the best in material, which means long and satisfactory service at the very lowest possible cost to the owner.

"The General Motors corporation is one of the largest automobile manufacturing concerns in the world. It is one of the few concerns that is having absolutely no trouble in weathering the financial storm through which this and other countries have been going during the past months. A unique and valuable system of financing has been developed by this concern. This consists of the corporation financing the agent in such a way as to permit him to buy in suciently large quantities to take good care of the buying public at all times."

FILM DISTRIBUTION IS REORGANIZED BY HAYS

$50,000,000 Expense to Be Eliminated Immediately

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Pushing a $50,000,000 load off the shoulders of the motion picture producers each year will be the first move of the Hays regime.

By a radical change in the method of distributing the films to exhibitors a system of triplicate handling in shipment will be done away with.

It will cost between $25,000,000 and $30,000,000 to put the new plan in operation as it involves building operations in 100 principal cities where new structures averaging $250,000 and $300,000 will be occupied.

In substance when the plans are completed, it means that the American Railway Express company will become the "postal service" of the film industry and it will act as the "clearing house" for all the producers.

If the undertaking is a success, it may result in its adoption by other industries and will cause a revolution in transportation methods involving the savings of millions and millions of dollars to large corporations.

Robert E. M. Cowie, vice-president and general manager of the American Railway Express company, who directed the work of merging the seven major express companies during the war, worked out the plan by which it is proposed that his company will become the distributing agent for motion picture concerns with a joint capital of approximately $300,000,000.

Cowie carried out the negotiations, which are now practically complete with representatives of the greatest American producers, including Famous Players-Lasky corporation, Fox film corporation, Universal, First National Exhibitors, Goldwyn, United Artists, etc.

By the proposed new plan the American Express company would build a "clearing house" in 100 sectional distribution points to which the producers would ship their films with posters and advertising matter.

All the films for the exhibitors in the metropolitan district of New York would be shipped to the New York express office, where the express company will assemble all the shipments to one exhibitor and make one delivery several days in advance of the release date on the pictures.

In this manner, the sectional distribution offices of the express company would function for the movie industry just as the post-office does for the mail districts.

Under the existing conditions the movie producers have in Chicago alone forty separate distributing agencies all with large forces of employes and large investments in real estate and equipment. Under the new plan there will be only one, maintained and operated by the express company. The same will prevail in 100 large cities in the various sections of the country from where 16,418 motion picture theatres get their films.

The new method can be placed in operation within two months after the plans are completed. Transportation men regard it as an experiment that may mean a revolution in business shipping methods. Eventually all shippers may turn their distribution over to a third corporation, acting independent of all of them.

COURT MOTOR CO. IS SETTLED IN ITS HOME

Cadillac Distributor Is Pleased With New Location

The Court Motor company, W. H. Court, proprietor, 228 South Brand boulevard, distributors for the Cadillac automobile in Glendale, is now comfortably located in its new home. Mr. Court's name is not new to the people of Glendale, for he has for a number of years been connected with some of the largest automobile distributors in the state of California. He is proud of, and feels that he is fortunate in being permitted to represent the Cadillac in Glendale. He has been in Glendale many times and feels this city is one of the finest on the Pacific coast.

Mr. Court organized and for many years was the president of the Burke-Court Motor Company, Memphis, Tenn. His company being the exclusive distributers for the Stutz motor cars in Memphis, Tenn.

The Cadillac automobile is so well known to every one that it really needs nothing in the way of introduction. It is one of the few really high-class automobiles on the market today and has a record behind it and a future before it that any car might well be proud to possess.

Here are a few of the unusual features claimed by the manufacturers of this car:

The first motor car manufacturers to adopt the Johansson gauge system. These gauges are accurate to the one-hundredth thousandth part of an inch. They are used as master gauges to check up the snap, plug and other gauges which are used in testing and proving the accuracy in dimensions of all important parts entering into the Cadillac car.

First to produce a standardized car—a car in which all parts of a kind are like all other parts of the same kind, down to the thousandth part of an inch accuracy, where such limits are desirable. Cadillac is still the more thoroughly standardized car on the market.

First to produce a truly high grade car at a modrate price.

First to introduce an electrical system of cranking and lighting.

First to develop the V-type high speed, high-efficiency automobile.

First to develop and inaugurate thermostatic control of circulation cooling medium on motor car engines.

A motor truck has been designed carrying an apparatus for boring post holes. A large sliding vertical shaft bearing a huge auger is mounted on the front of the truck. Without leaving his seat, the operator can bore a hole, bring a derrick into play and drop a telephone pole into the hole.

FIVE RECORDS BROKEN BY UNITED STATES AVIATORS DURING WAR

The feat of Stinson and Bertaud marks the fifth world's record made by American airmen during 1921. Lieutenant McCready of the army on September 28 drove an airplane to the height of 37,800 feet. Lieutenant-Commander David McCullough in a Loening monoplane flying boat made an altitude of 19,500 feet, carrying four persons. Bert Acosta drove a Curtiss navy racer in Omaha last September for 150 miles at an average of 176.3 miles an hour. Sergeant Chambers of Fort Sill, Lawton, Okla., on November 1 dropped 26,000 feet in a parachute in 18 minutes. The navy dirigible C-7, piloted by Lieutenant-Commander R. F. Wood, on December 2 made three flights with the first use of helium. So 1921 has been a record year for American aviation.

TURN CUPS DOWN OFTEN.

Unless grease cups are turned down the grease in the passages becomes caked and hardened, preventing the passage of fresh grease to the surface needing it. If at any time difficulty is noticed in turning down these cups they should be removed and obstructing matter should be carefully cleaned out and then they should be filled with fresh grease.

FACE VALVES WITH LATHE.

When valves are badly pitted, the operation of facing is best carried out in a lathe. Chuck the valve stem and clean the center in the valve end and support it by the dead center of the tail stock. If the valves are so hard that facing with a tool is impossible they may be ground with a wheel while in the lathe.

Overheating is a long step on the way to an expensive replacement. If the ground for ignition current is made by soldering a copper wire on top of the rear cylinder, just as soon as heat enough develops to melt the solder the engine will stop without any attention on the part of the driver.

RELIANCE MOTOR TRUCK MANAGER HAS ARRIVED

E. H. Kendall Is Ready to Demonstrate Unit He Represents

E. H. Kendall, sales manager in Southern California for the Reliance Motor Truck, which is being assembled at the Glendale plant of the factory, was in Glendale Thursday demonstrating the truck. One of the prominent features of the truck is the external gear drive. This system of gearing has been installed on the Reliance trucks for the past 11 years but this is the first time that it has appeared on the Pacific coast. Another feature of the truck is the fact that the magneto and generating system are combined, giving added efficiency. The demonstrator can be throttled down to at speed as low as one mile per hour in high gear and can attain a 30-mile an hour speed.

This truck is being assembled in Glendale at the same factory that will build the Pacific Speed Wagon a half ton truck, the product of the Reliance Truck company.

ROAD SIGNS WILL BE PROTECTED

Serious measures to prevent the destruction of road-marking signs in the western part of the United States are contemplated by motorists of Southern California and adjacent territory.

Vandalism which takes the form of "shooting up" life-saving signposts in the desert regions and on on some of the million dollar boulevards of the west has led auto owners who are members of the Automobile Club of Southern California to consider definite action.

At a meeting in the heard of the mining district, where lynching bees and "sudden dismissals" were the order of the day not so long ago, the spirit of these adventurous days has been revived and resolutions drafted which indicate that it is going hard with anyone caught trying out a new shotgun on any of the road markers guiding motorists safely over the desert routes.

The following notice is typical of those being posted throughout the great Rand mining district by auto club members of that section who have taken the matter into their own hands, just as in days gone by, by their fathers took a rope and the limb of a tree to make their resolutions respected.

"We take this means of asking the public to consider the value of the club's sign posts in the mining districts of the west and the desert in general—as the signs have been shot up, destroyed and in places, removed. We are asking the public to place damaged signposts back in their original positions."

Terse as this warning is, it carries a stern threat which cannot be overlooked by the type of human being who is so thoughtless as to destroy signs which may be the means of saving lives.

This is the time of the year when it is well to remember the good old method of loosening scale that has formed in the cooling system. Six pounds of washing soda dissolved in five gallons of boiling water is the correct formula. Pour this solution in the cooling system and allow it to remain for a day, then drain and flush the system out with clean water and refill.

"Why don't you give that poor beggar a dime?" "He's one of my depositors," said the banker, briefly.

MAXWELL CARS IN BRAVE ARRAY ARE IN TOWN

Glendale Motor Car Company Show Complete Line

The complete line of Maxwell cars are now on display in the show room of the Glendale Motor Car Co., 246 South Brand Blvd., Maxwell dealers for this territory.

One of the most interesting features of their display, is a very complete parts board showing all of the changes in motor and rear axle construction which have made such big improvement and placed the "Good Maxwell" in the position of a leader of motor car design.

"It is surprising the interest that has been created by the new Maxwell," said Mr. Clark. It seems to be just be just the car that the public have been waiting for, the easy riding, soft clutch and brake and comfortable large seats especially appeal to women and they usually have the final word when the family car is purchased.

The new show room of The Glendale Motor Car Co., will be open every night next week for the benefit of those awho have been anxious to see the new Maxwell, but who are engaged in business during the day.

VACATION DOPE IS IN THE MAKING

Right now is the time thousands of people get the "dope" together and plan that summer vacation. It will astonish a lot of people to know that the figures show 10,000,000 vacation days were spent in your national forests last year. Four million tourists were counted and the average was two and a half days per person, says the American Forestry Association of Washington. By auto and train they get into their playgrounds at the first breath of spring and from then on it is a parade until snow time comes.

PLAYGROUNDS.

"National forests were set aside primarily to produce timber and protect the watersheds of streams" says the association's statement. "These are their primary functions and no other use should take precedence, but American business methods demand the greatest possible aggregate return from these vast areas. If the use of the forests for great play places increases their service power without detraction from the main output, namely, live stock, timber and water, it should be fostered and developed.

"Recreation is practically a wholly added return from the forests. Timber growing, live stock grazing and watershed protection continue undiminished. The 10,000,000 days of play Americans spent last year in the national forests is created wealth.

NOW NECESSITIES.

"Roads and trails built for administrative and protective purposes serve also for recreation. But curious as it may appear not one cent has ever been set aside by congress to develop solely the recreation resources of the forests. No camp shelters, fireplaces, sanitaries, garbage pits or other camp necessities have been supplied through federal funds.

"With the tremendous use now present it is imperative that provision be made at least to protect those people that annually spend their vacation," the American Forestry Association points out. "Simple minimum sanitary improvements must be built to protect human lives. Scores die each year from drinking polluted waters in the mountains. The installation of these necessities will prevent much of this loss. Fireplaces must be built to prevent forest fires."

Truths in Epigram

Error of opinion may be tolerated where reason is left free to combat it.—Jefferson (1743-1826).

Necessity is the argument of tyrants; it is the creed of slaves. —Pitt (1759-1806).

History is little else than a picture of human crimes and misfortunes.—Voltaire (1694-1778).

WEATHER SHARKS

There are many persons known as "weather sharks." And odd the ideas they have. They are the persons who claim the weather is changing. And of course, the weather is not changing, has not changed and will not change in the history of men. It may have changed a little in a few hundred thousand years. But in the last ten thousand or so it has changed perhaps not at all.

This winter, we will say, there is a lot of rainfall. In the eastern country there is a lot of snow. And next winter and for several winters there may be not so much rainfall and not so much snow. Then come the weather sharks with their cry that the weather is changing.

Just then, as to confound them, there is another winter of heavy rain or snow, as the case may be. And so it goes. Weather is not exactly the same any two successive winters or summers either, for that matter. But over a decade we shall have about the same varieties of weather, pretty evenly distributed.

No the weather is not changing, in the sense that temperate climates are no longer temperate and tropical no longer tropical. Men change and governments change and customs change, but the weather goes on forever in about the same way.

ANOTHER MARTYR LOOMS

Recently a man named Lambertson was shot as he tried to wreck a railroad train. The police had become aware of his intent, but had to let him follow his plan almost to the climax. Then they found it necessary to shoot him. Perhaps it is rather to be regretted that he survives the wounds.

Already the I. W. W., an organization in which this man is said to be a shining light, is reported to have set about raising a $30,000 defense fund. Of course they will raise the money. Some of the parlor bolshevists are rich, and anything advocated by communism and anarchy, makes fetching appeal.

One needs to glance but briefly into the future to see this Lambertson another martyr. There will be circulars drawn up concerning him. He will be posed as the victim of capitalism. The court that convicts him will be denounced as purchased and corrupt. The protest against whatever penalty may be prescribed, will find expression in resolutions that the constitution be, and hereby is, set forth as a fizzle and a fake, and wiped off the slate.

Moscow and other outlying precincts will touch off bombs. German communists will roll their r-r-s terribly. The program may be regarded as complete, for there have been enough of the martyrs already so that the hordes of disorder are familiar with details.

To be a hero and a martyr with lustrous halo, ditch a train; of course ascertaining in advance that there are no parlor car bolshevists aboard.

P. S.—The man died after all.

SILLY LAWS

Four men who drew their children on sleighs through Central Park have been summoned so that a New York judge may determine whether they have violated the ordinance concerning vehicular traffic.

Is it possible that a New York judge has nothing to do, that he must relieve the tedium of official hours by being a silly Billy?

Long ago the unhappy beadle so admirably portrayed by Dickens said "the law is an ass." He not only said this, but demonstrated the truth of his averment. And the beadle never had heard of a law so utterly imbecile as that which would check the impulse of a father to give his boys and girls a sled ride in a snow-covered park.

Children who have to live in New York, save they be the children of the very rich, are out of luck. There is a lack of playground. The streets are forbidden, and would be extremely dangerous. Many youngsters grow up on New York's east side without ever having seen Central Park.

If there are fathers in New York with enough of the joy of life still left to them, to appreciate the needs of children, to provide sleds, and provide manpower for impelling the sleds through the snowy park, the great provincial center ought to be glad of it. The idea of annoying such worthy fathers by absurd police regulation, bolsters up the opinion of the beadle.

RISKS OF BOOTLEGGING

While it may be true that the bootlegger makes money rapidly, his life is far from enviable. To keep out of jail, to bribe crooked officials, to pay fines, requires a large part of whatever income he may command. Then there is his conscience. It must be a most undesirable conscience with which to live.

One of the recent murders in Los Angeles was that of a bootlegger. At this writing nobody seems able to name the assassins. Probably they had been customers. It is not unlikely that they had become tired of paying ten times the reasonable valuation of the poison he hawked. Of course in reality the stuff was worth considerably less than nothing, yet for purposes of barter it was necessary to name a price.

For customers to inaugurate the practice of shooting the bootlegger, merely adds one more to the latter's list of perils. Already he had been taking a chance with the law, and now it seems that his fellow lawbreaker is not to be depended upon, and he must take a chance with him, too.

The slaying of this bootlegger is another argument for complete abatement of the illicit traffic. The calling of the bootlegger tends to bring not only the prohibition law, but all laws, into contempt. When all law is held in contempt by any considerable class, then things of an untoward nature begin to happen. These may include the murder of a bootlegger. The criminal instinct, once aroused, is likely to be wide in its activities, and to lack discrimination. In other words, it might by no means confine itself to lessening the numerical total of bootleggers.

AFTER A DISASTER

Destruction of scores of lives by the collapse of a theater in Washington, is being marked by the usual course. First comes the wave of indignation. Follows next the determination to fix the blame and prescribe a severe penalty. After this, the next on the program, if precedent is to guide, will be nothing. These furors always end in nothing.

Search the memory for disasters of comparatively recent years:

There was the Slocum, wholly unseaworthy, permitted to sail from New York loaded more heavily than would have been safe for the staunchest craft. The result was, in round number, a thousand deaths. Nobody paid, except the old captain, a helpless figurehead.

There was the Eastland, so jammed with excursionists that it overturned in the dock at Chicago. Rather a horrid and unnecessary tragedy. There was the customary indignation, simmering to an ultimate nothing.

Demonstrations have been numerous that a man may crowd his factory with operatives, denying them access to fire-escapes, fail to take proper precautions against fire, with the effect of burning the operatives. Such an episode creates much loud talk. In each instance there is apparent desire to punish the guilty. No guilty person ever is punished.

The one hope that the development in the present case may be different, is that the whole matter comes under jurisdiction of the federal government. Congress has taken great pride in having the capital ruled well. This catastrophe shows a defect in the municipal mechanism. Not to disclose and eliminate the defect, would be to condone a crime, and invite its repetition.

Architecture is a science. The man who plans a structure knows how much strain it can endure. Yet the architect of this theater perhaps is both capable and conscientious. It may be that a contractor slighted the specifications, slyly introduced inferior material; possibly used a lighter steel than called for, hiding the deficiency by a slosh of concrete.

All these are matters concerning which the truth ought to be obtained. Then the guilty must be punished as a preventive measure. The public has a right to know, that, storm or no storm, a theater is not going to tumble about its ears.

Don't try to kill two birds with one stone. Use a shotgun.

Graft often goes about disguised as a business opportunity.

Why are we warned to look out for certain individuals who are more capable of looking out for themselves?

Love's young dream never yet kindled the kitchen fire on a cold winter morning.

Silence is often the price of domestic felicity.

Many a woman has lost an ardent admirer by marrying him.

The Psychology of Boredom

By DR. FRANK CRANE

Most of us are bored most of the time.

And the reason that we are bored is that we are human beings, fallen creatures, theologically speaking, or imperfectly developed creatures, scientifically speaking. It all comes to the same thing.

And our greatest difficulty is in our imagination.

Only in imagination can there be an escape from boredom.

For the commonest source of boredom is repetition.

The thing that we get bored with is the thing that occurs over and over. We have to get up in the morning and dress and eat, and we have to go to work and come home and undress and go to bed. So rolls the weary wheel around.

Everybody has to do this one way or another, and if some people manage to do it with gayety and get a lot of fun out of it, it is simply because they have imagination enough to make play of it.

There is no fun except in play or religion or both.

Very many of us are unable to use religion. We have it, but we do not use it—that is to say, it does us no practical good between Sundays. If we were wise enough we might have a sort of religion that would run along seven days in the week, but we are not.

Everybody could play if they had imagination enough. And play does not consist in some other kind of exercise, but it consists in carrying on the same exercise in a different spirit.

It consists in flooding the commonplace with imagination.

It consists in using our fancy to give us that aloofness in our daily task that shall make it amusing and not boring.

The trouble with most people is, not that they are not serious enough, but that they are too serious about unimportant things. Most things do not matter.

There are men who can carry on great and important business with all the zest of a game. They are good losers and so they are happy winners.

There are women who can accept the inevitable and the unavoidable and laugh at it. They have that eternal touch of childhood, that Peter Pan spirit, which enables them, like a sprite, to dance gleefully over waves where their less imaginative sisters pitifully drowned.

To make a little girl happy you do not have to give her a new doll that costs a hundred dollars, for she can get more fun out of her old rag doll that costs nothing. That is because her fun comes from her imagination.

And except ye be converted and become as little children, you shall not have the slightest idea of what I am talking about.

THE LISTENING POST

Time is of the stuff of which life is made.
Ben Franklin said that.
And cautioned us not to waste it.
Ben gave uniformly good advice.
And rendered uniformly good service to his country.

You will note that he did not say it was the stuff life is made of.
To the exclusion of everything else.
But he said it was "of the stuff."
Indicating that there are other things in the making of life beside time alone.

* * *

For if time alone were the stuff life is made of the turtle would have a greater life than the man.
For the turtle has more time in his composition.
He lives several hundred years.
Coldly and sluggishly and indolently and without much of color or incident.
But he lives, if merely motion and breath and heart-beat is living.

Life is more in the intensity of it than the length of it.
Men and women have lived intensely and beautifully in a brief period of years.
And some have lived long and sluggishly and more like the turtle.
Many of the lives that have touched and colored and inspired the world have been short ones.

So it is not so much the length as the spirit of life that counts.
Not so much the size of the fabric as the color and pattern of it.
Lincoln lived a life that was comparatively short.
He was born in 1809 and died in 1865.

Yet he touched and colored the spirit of America and the minds and hearts of those who came after him more perhaps than any American.
Even though he died at a time when life with many men is in the fulness of its beauty and service.

Life is not altogether to be expressed in terms of time.
But it is expressed much in the use we make of the time we have.
Just as a building is not expressed in terms of materials alone.
It is in the form and arrangements of the materials.

Through time there runs a chain that binds present and past.
That is memory.
Memory is a kind of thread upon which we may string the days.
From our earliest remembrance.

And there are many things deserving to be threaded upon the silken cord of memory.
And many things that need to be cast aside.
We need to save all the things that have comforted and helped and inspired and cheered us.
And we need to forget the things that have too much grieved and fretted and distressed us.

Memory should not retain the hurt of old stings and misunderstandings and frets and cares.
Some of our time in life should be spent in learning to forget things.
The things whose remembrance is painful and sorrowful.

It is well to take with us the lesson of trials and sorrows.
But to forget the bitterness and sadness.
To get the stings out of our memories.
As we get thorns out of the flesh.
To get rid of that hurt because somebody said something.
Or did something.

Time is of the stuff of which life is made.
We need to save a lot that we employ often in recrimination and regret and melancholy.
And to use it in looking onward and upward and forward.
For today is the time of which we may make new endeavor.
New resolutions.
New deeds and dreams and hopes and happiness.

SONGS OF THE POETS

Old Books Are Best—Beverly Chew (1850——)

Old Books are best! With what delight
Does "Faithoine fecit" greet our sight
On frontispiece or title-page
Of that old time, when on the stage
"Sweet Nell" set "Rowley's" heart alight!

And you, O Friend, to whom I write,
Must not deny, e'en though you might,
Through fear of modern pirates' rage,
Old Books are best.

What though the print be not so bright,
The paper dark, the binding slight?
Our author, be he dull or sage,
Returning from that distant age
So lives again, we say of right:
Old Books are best.

JUST BETWEEN OURSELVES

By DELLA STEWART

"Christmas come and gawn!" said the old darky when he smashed his bottle of hooch while boarding a trolley on the evening of that holiday. Yes, and the new year well begun. What about the Christmas spirit? That gone, too? Not so much thoughtful care for others' likes and dislikes? A little less kindness of heart, of realization of others' needs?

Why should it be so? Why don't we carry the Christmas spirit through the whole year? Not by remembering all our friends on particular days, but by being at least alive to their needs. It would be imposing on Santa's generosity to call on his pack for daily gifts, yet it might occasionally happen that some need could be supplied better at some other time than that of the general gift-giving. Wants do not limit themselves to any particular season of the year. Why, then, should the delight of satisfying them?

Wouldn't it be a good plan not to preserve carefully all our loving thoughts, as we do our fruit, for the winter, but to be lavish with them throughout the months? Isn't it just as feasible to exercise the virtue of generosity in February and March and June and September as in December? Not that Christmas lose its magic spell for our hearts? Oh, no! But that we carry its welcome alchemy throughout the whole year—the spirit of free and loving favor granting.

Isn't it worth while trying? There's enough glow in the Christmas warmth of heart to scatter itself over the whole cycle of months and make itself a habit, rather than a spasm.

EASTERN POINT OF VIEW

AMERICANS ARE SO PECULIAR

[Chicago Tribune]

"Good God, no!" said a high British official when asked if Great Britain would turn over the West Indies to the United States on account. "They are human. White men are not assets to be bought and sold."

Only two things keep this from being a very important statement. One is that we do not know who said it. The other is the qualification "white." That would keep it from being the dawn of a new era. With it the high official is not saying much for Africa and Asia.

We do not suppose the United States will get the British West Indies just at present. It got the Danish West Indies, but its best chance for the British was in 1917. We passed that and may have to wait for another, if it ever comes.

The British are not vanquished and they already have the dough. That interferes with the working of our formula. We have considerable sympathy for their point of view. As the British high official said: "Good God, no; they are human!" Possibly he means that even our constitution should protest. The British think that it would be cruel and unusual punishment to turn the black West Indies over to our political system and the white West Indies over to our social and moral system.

A Tribune correspondent in Mexico said that Americans entering there were affected by the freedom and liberty. It goes to their heads and they become erratic. They can do virtually everything they want to do except start revolutions, win in lotteries in which the wives of Mexican officials have tickets, and get safe concessions from the Mexican government. They are not able at first to stand the release from American restrictions.

We probably are regarded as a peculiar people to whom it would be cruel to turn over the innocent and happy people of the West Indies.

American news may justify this conception of us: Ex-federal official sitting in doorway flanked by quart bottles of whisky, drinking out of pint flask—social reformers in massmeeting to put cigarets, jazz music, moving pictures, and automobiles out of business—men suspected of murder being lynched without trial—men with murder proved against them in trial being turned loose—booze robbers caught taking away wet goods of dry congressmen—American diplomats drinking champagne at Washington dinners—Chicago clubs being raided because some one is suspected of having a pint on the hip, and having it—families being kidnaped in automobiles—automobiles knocking lamp posts on citizens' heads and killing them—police shooting citizens—citizens shooting police—fight pictures barred—fight pictures undisturbed in movie houses—etc., etc.

Possibly we are peculiar.

COMMENT ON DAY'S NEWS

By HENRY JAMES

This generation is counseled to think aright.

To think aright is to apply the principles of common sense to one's environment; interpret conditions intelligently; learn to deduce from the material world, the presence and purpose of the spiritual.

HENRY JAMES

A scientist of high repute, Robert A. Millikan, is identified with a California school of the first class. He preaches the gospel of sanity and truth. Through the creative force, as the light of knowledge is thrown upon its processes, shines the measureless wisdom of God. The human mind discerns it, is thrilled and inspired to think aright. Man finds God in nature; finds at the same time, his own place in nature. He is learning to think aright.

Along comes the disciple of the preposterous, proclaiming that all matter is an illusion of the senses. He says this material world which "man thinks he sees, hears, feels and touches" is about to be dissolved.

How could the non-existent dissolve into a state of non-existence?

Passing a city street corner one sees a lofty sign declaring that millions of persons now on the earth are never to perish.

Yet every sane man on the earth knows that he must perish, that all his fellows must perish, and together become as dust before the wind.

The difficulty of thinking aright when there are so many false teachers, so many spurious signs, is apparent enough. The trouble is that in seeking the spiritual, the narrow mind, the one-idea mind, rejects the material. There is no occasion to reject it as a fact. Any theory that strives to reject it as a fact, defeats itself; becomes a jumble of absurdity, its exponents mere babblers.

As Millikan says "one does not bluff in physics."

Older persons will never be able to fathom the boy mind—or the girl mind for that matter. In Pasadena the other day the high school was dismissed because the children had come through the storm and their clothing was soaked. It was thought best to allow them to go back home and dry out. The children accepted the holiday and 90 per cent of them started immediately for the mountains and spent the day snowballing. They dried out that evening—at the usual drying hour.

There has been some advocacy of the death penalty for crimes of robbery by violence.

Whatever wisdom might lie in the suggestion is negatived by the fact that even for murder so many jurors hesitate to impose capital punishment, that trials are little better than farces in frequent instances, and in many cases, far worse.

It is said that a very rich American grass widow is about to marry a Russian youth of unpronouncable name. He is twenty-three and she is forty-eight.

Perhaps it would be ungracious to remark that there is no fool like an old fool. Anyhow, forty-eight is not really old.

When a man leads a double life, the assumption is that one role is reasonably decent. Even when this is true, judgment invariably is passed according to the worse role of the pair.

The police of Pasadena recently arrested a man as a robber. He admitted the truth of the charges. A little later he added the information that he once had employed a piece of gas pipe as the instrument of a murder that had rested uneasily on his conscience for a term of years.

WATCHING THE PARADE

By JOHN PILGRIM

Don't tell me there is no such thing as luck. I know better. You either have it or you don't have it. It may be bad or good. Sometimes it runs in streaks, and you break about even. But we all have luck of one sort or another, and we cannot get away from it, and we cannot explain it.

Take the case of Jerry Morgan, for example. The name is camouflaged, out of respect for his feelings, but long years ago I knew him well. His father died when he was a baby. His mother was left penniless. Eventually she married another man, and Jerry was ill-treated and ran away from home just after he had worked through the old Fourth Reader. Because he was a husky kid he became a sort of pugilist. That was all bad luck, wasn't it? He wasn't much of a pugilist, and he lost a fight which his backers expected him to win. So he lost his backers. Twenty years ago, in the dead of winter, he walked down an icy street in Columbus, Ohio.

He was hungry, penniless, and an absolute stranger in town. He had just bummed his way in on a freight, and had been booted off with every circumstance of ignominy. He was so weak he tottered. His toe caught in something buried in the ice, and because he was in such a languid state mentally that his curiosity was aroused by so small a circumstance—and because he had nothing else to do—he went back to see what it was that had tripped him.

It was a neat roll of five-dollar bills. Some one had lost it, and the falling sleet had pinned it to the ground so that the wind had not blown it away. And he came along just before the sleet had buried it. Up to this moment he had had nothing but bad luck. He was as complete a loss as a young man could be. Everything came his way. That money meant new clothes, plenty of food for the time, a warm room, rest and a regained self-respect. In two days he had a job. When he walked into the office yesterday I did not recognize him. Today he is the president of a bank in a good-sized town on the western coast. Everything he has ever touched has turned to money.

He has had nothing but luck of the best sort. His speculations are always profitable. He has a lovely wife, he tells me, and a family of fine children. When he dies he will have a grand funeral, and the whole town will mourn him, for he has developed into a citizen who is not only prominent, but is really worth while.

But I wonder what was the luck of the man who lost that roll of bills?

DO YOU KNOW THAT?

As a single female Hessian fly give rise in two years to 644,520,375 flies, this pest would make wheat growing impossible were it not for its parasitic enemies and unfavorable weather conditions.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH HAS UNIQUE MEETING

The monthly meeting of the Central Christian church's auxiliary of the C. W. B. M., usually held on the first Wednesday of the month was postponed this month until last night in order that a most unusual program might be given. After the usual business session had been held, the program opened with scripture comment by Mrs. T. C. Creel, section leader, followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. C. C. Stoler. A piano solo by Miss Laura Wilford Brown and a song on Thibet, composed by Adelaide Gail Frost and sung by Miss Lulu Ethel Garston to the familiar air of "Saved by Grace," were the next numbers on the program. Then Dr. Ogden and wife, for 17 years associated with Dr. and Mrs. Bert Sheldon, with missionary work in Thibet, gave brief addresses, Mrs. Ogden speaking first and telling of the work among the women and children in that forbidden land on the "roof of the world" which was opened to missionary work through the persistent efforts of Drs. Sheldon and Ogden. The latter then took up the narrative telling of how the two families had camped on the borders of Thibet for five long years before they could gain an entry. Then establishing themselves in Batang, the two men began the seemingly impossible task of meeting the flinty hearts of the Thibetans, Dr. Sheldon ministering to the needs of the filthy and afflicted bodies and dispensing healing medicines freely, while his companion strove to teach the natives the principles of Christianity. Their persistence won and now a large hospital and dispensary mission station school and orphanage have been established and many native converts made.

At the close of his address, Rev. Hunter, for 30 years a missionary for the Presbyterian board in Manchura and Mangolia, made a brief talk lauding the efforts of Drs. Sheldon and Ogden and their good wives and predicting wonderful results in the future. Doris and Dorothy, young daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Sheldon, then appeared in Thibetan costume, Dorothy playing the queer one-stringed fiddle, which is one of three musical instruments used by the Thibetans, and both singing and going through the queer posturing of the native women. Doris then told of both their early lives in Thibet, where both were born, and described some of the manners and customs of that strange land and answered many questions from the audience. Miss Sheldon said her father, who sailed for the Orient last August 13, should now be in Lhassa, where he had been invited to come by the great Lhama, who had until the last two years, refused all missionary work in his land and had brought about the murder of many devoted Catholic priests and their converts. Now he is urging Dr. Sheldon to establish a hospital in Lhassa. Mrs. Sheldon is in Calcutta, India, seeing to the printing of hymn books and some of the books of the Bible in Thibetan. The two girls are attending school in Pomona and living with their grandparents. When they finish school they expect to return to their native land of Thibet and take up teaching work.

TRI MU CLASS HOLD GOOD MEETING

An enthusiastic business session of the Tri Mu class of the First Baptist Sunday school was held in the class room last night. The meeting was called to order by Rene Olin, acting president of the class, with Stanley Walker, serving as secretary.

The principal business of the evening was the election of a president of the class, Rene Olin being selected to serve in this capacity for the ensuing year. H. B. Arnold was elected to the vice presidency of the class, which position carries with it the chairmanship of the membership committee. The men present decided to donate $25 to serve as a first payment on a piano for the junior department, and $12.08 of this amount was collected "on the spot."

Very encouraging reports were given by the various committee chairman. J. L. Gray, chairman of the entertainment committee, reported that things are coming along nicely for the entertainment that will be given by the boys on February 24. The program that is being arranged is strictly first class. Every man who attends this event is required to bring his wife, mother, sweetheart or some other fellow's "girl."

The meeting closed with a general "all-hand" debate on the question, "Resoluved, that the sewage system of Glendale should empty in the Atlantic ocean." Neither side seemed to be gaining a great deal of ground, when some bright youth suggested that the sewer empty in the Indian ocean, being built via Alaska. This seemed to meet with unanimous approval except on the part of the pastor, whose frantic objections were completely overruled in the storm of hilarity that followed.

DAD HAS HIS OWN EVENING

Friday night was Father's Night at the Columbus avenue school, when the P.-T. A. held their regular meeting. The hall was crowded to its fullest capacity and a most interesting program was enjoyed. The meeting was opened by the singing of America and the flag salute which was followed by a short business meeting. After the business meeting a fine program was presented by the children of the school. "Our Flag" was given by Jefferson Fearles who was dressed as Uncle Sam. The pupils of B-1 class gave "My Shadows." "A Group of Songs" was sung by the A-1 class. The 6-B class gave a dramatization from "Hanzel and Gretel," and the 6th grade gave "Naples," a reading. A dramatization of "The Little Tailor" was given by the A-2 class. Eleanor Griffith told an original fairy tale and one was also told by Barbara Sawyer, which were very interesting. Raymond Hall gave an original speech on "Good Sportsmanship."

Another original speech was given by LaVerne Shaw on "How I Can Be a Good Citizen." The program closed with the "American's Creed" given by the 5th grade. The president of this P.-T. A. feels that the success of Friday night and other meetings is due to the cooperation given by the teachers and mothers and they wish to thank the board and all who helped to make it such a great success.

MRS. BULLIS' PARTY

Following a custom inaugurated three years ago by Mrs. Wesley Bullis, one of the teachers in the Acacia avenue school, a farewell party for third grade pupils was given Friday afternoon at the school, at which about 45 children were guests. There was no program except a few songs. For the refreshments the children were seated at an L-shaped table decorated with hyacinth and narcissi, where they were served with chocolate, cake and candy, Miss May Cornwell, principal, and Mrs. Bullis being the hostesses.

There's pleasure in being cranky that only a crank can know.

Two Little Brownies

The possession of ten living grandparents is a heritage of which few children in this day and age can boast, but such is the good fortune of Bettie Jane Brown, 2½ months old, and her brother Merritt Robinson Brown, 14 months old, whose portraits are shown herewith and who are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt E. Brown.

Bettie Jane is not to young to know by heart about half a dozen nursery rhymes, or to dance prettily. Both children are vigorous youngsters who have never been sick a day in their lives. Their mother is under twenty and Mr. Brown fell in love with her when both were high school students. He is making a fine record as an employe of the Santa Fe railroad in its Los Angeles offices, having had many promotions in the past three years. The Browns own a pretty home at 220 North Maryland avenue and are proud parents.

The great, great grandmother of these children is Mrs. A. A. Mc Ilhany of Alhambra. The rest of their great grandparents live in Iowa, Missouri and Idaho, and their grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Brown of 320 South Orange streets and Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Hagood of 216 North Orange street, this city.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat, also take glass of Salts before eating breakfast.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

THE NOISELESS RADIATOR

I've a noiseless radiator and you may have heard of them,
This one starts being noiseless about 6 o'clock a. m.
I awake—the ship is sinking, and I say: "Is hope all gone?"
And a voice from somewhere answers: "No—the steam is coming on!"
I drop off to sleep a minute, just a minute, as I said,
Then I hear an anvil chorus that would surely wake the dead.
It reminds me of a boiler being pounded with a sledge,
And I listen and I suffer till my nerves are all on edge.

It sounds like German Opera when they shake the heavy tins
That they use to make the thunder when the thunderstorms begins.
Old Thor is there with bells on and his hammer pounds and pounds
Till the dawn is split wide open with a medley of mad sounds.
There are times I'm sleeping soundly and that radiator leaps
From its moorings with a volley that would quite give you the creeps,
You may talk about a barrage and the torture it affords,
But my noiseless radiator has it backed clear off the boards.

It's a noiseless radiator, as I told you once before,
It's as noiseless as an earthquake in a glass and china store,
It makes noise enough an hour from the way my nerves all feel,
To drive buckets of hot rivets through sixteen square yards of steel.
It's as noiseless as a dog-fight or a foundry in full blast,
It has Wagner at his wildest lashed securely to the mast.
In the winter you can hear it half a mile or so up town—
But it's noiseless in Midsummer when the heating plant shuts down!

PRESBYTERIANS TO WELCOME LONELY

The men's Bible class of the Presbyterian church which meets at the city hall every Sunday morning at 9:30 has selected some of the committees which will direct its activities during the next six months.

They are planning to make every man who is not attending any other church to feel that he is wanted in this group.

NEW RATE SCHEDULE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The interstate commerce commission, under provisions of the transportation act, must soon determine anew the rate of net return that the railways should be allowed to earn. The provision of the law directing the commission to fix rates that would enable the railways to earn from 5½ to 6 per cent expires on March 1. Thereafter, the rate of return the railways should be allowed to earn must be fixed by the commission itself, and in that connection it must consider the country's need for adequate transportation.

LA CRESCENTA NEWS AND NOTES

LA CRESCENTA, Feb. 4.—The regular meeting of the La Crescenta Improvement association was held at the school auditorium Thursday evening with the largest attendance in many months. In the absence of the president, F. K. Czerniski, Vice President C. E. Culberson took the chair. Twenty-one new members were enrolled. One of the outstanding events of the meeting was the assurance by Mr. Culberson that La Crescenta would have gas in fifteen months. Mr. Culberson has been working on these lines for some time. A committee composed of George Dunlop, C. E. Culberson and E. Malory were appointed to call on the board of supervisors and ask them to make some provisions for the flood water crossing the highways. A resolution made by George Dunlap that La Crescenta have a directory was unanimously passed and a committee will be appointed. Secretary T. O. Potts was asked to send a message of sympathy to President F. K. Czerniski with good wishes for a speedy recovery.

F. K. Czerniski of Michigan avenue met with a serious accident Thursday morning at his plant in Los Angeles. Mr. Czerniski was inspecting a repaired furnace when it exploded, burning his face severely, several pieces of metal entering his eyes. He is reported doing as nicely as could be expected.

Mrs. S. Dyment of Barrie, Canada, and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Gregory of Winnipeg, Canada, spent last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brown of Los Angeles avenue.

Mrs. Claudie Westerfelt of Los Angeles and Mrs. C. Ellis of La Canada were luncheon guests of Mrs. Harriette Bastable last Wednesday.

Mrs. B. F. Keith of Michigan avenue, who was operated upon recently at the Glendale Research hospital, returned to her home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Thompson of Cleveland, Ohio, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Steere last Tuesday.

Mrs. E. Furgeson of Canada is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Miller.

IF CAPS STICK HEAT THEM.

Occasionally a valve cap will stick and defy all ordinary efforts to loosen it. When this occurs, run the engine for a little while until the cap is heated and then pour a little warm water in the recess of cap. This causes a sudden cooling, which makes the metal contract, permitting the cap to be easily unscrewed.

Worn brake linings may cause the rivets holding the linings to the bands to strike the drum. This will bring squeaks when you apply the brakes. To correct this, remove the bands and sink the rivet heads below the lining, or if the linings are too thin, renew them.

GLENDALE MUSIC CLUB CONCERT ARTISTIC NOTE

Delightful Program Is Very Cleverly Given by Organization

Mrs. Gertrude Ross and the soprano, Annis Stoeton Howell, who assisted her and interpreted her songs, must have been highly gratified by the appreciation displayed by the excellent audience which gathered at the high school Friday evening for the concert given by the Glendale Music club. Miss Howell has a very nice voice in the freshness of her youth, and her clear enunciation was a delight seldom vouchsafed. She sang with intelligence and feeling which were satisfying.

Mrs. Ross took the audience into her confidence in the explanations she gave of the themes and occasions of her compositions and it was of interest to discover that the program included her first composition, a lullaby written for her own babe, and her last work which was sung in public for the first time by Miss Howell—"Delight of the Out-of-Doors." It was a song escape from the task, the words being written by Richard Le Gallienne.

A group which greatly delighted the aduience included Spanish folk songs current before the American occupation of California and which are still sung by Mexican laborers at their work. Believing that these lovely melodies, so typically Spanish, should not be lost, Mrs. Ross wrote them down as gathered from Spanish grandmothers of the old regime, some of whom she ran across in Santa Barbara. In her hands they have been embellished and harmonized. In this group were "Un Parjarita," "Nadie Me Quieres," "Carmela," and "Ye No Se Si Me Quieres," the last being repeated as an encore by Miss Howell in response to insistent applause.

The art song of Japan were dainty bits true to type proving Mrs. Ross's artistry. The one entitled "Butterflies," she stated was a song by Lafcadio Hearne.

Centering the program and strongly competing in interest were the instrumental compositions which Mrs. Ross played in a manner calculated to bring out their full beauty. The "Spanish Seraenade," expressing tender, but not cloying sentiment was especially striking for its melody and strong suggestion of the guitar as a supporting motif. Valse, from Ballet, Legende, was another lovely thing, light and airy as a bubble. The "Ride of the Cowboy," an unusual piece of descriptive music, also brought great applause.

Artistic were the beginning and the ending, the opening song being the breezy, wholesome "Good Morning Life," the words of which were written by an English tramp, now famous, who was discovered by Bernard Shaw. Closing the program and following a very beautiful song of spring and the no less lovely "At Twilight," was a rejoicing apostrophe to peace from Miss Ross's War Triology.

Before introducing the artists Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, president of the club, expressed her joy in the prosperity of the organization and the loyalty of its members. Though it has daringly attempted big things, it has been sustained by the public, the concert for Alice Gentle bringing an enrollment which not only paid the singer but left the club with $270 in its treasury for subsequent concerts in which the artists have all been paid.

At its next concert, February 17, the club will celebrate its first birthday and a fine program has been provided for that occasion, Mrs. Jones said, when the audience will be limited to members of the senior and auxiliary clubs, which have a combined enrollment of 782.

Mrs. Jones then introduced two members of the board of the State Federation of Music clubs who explained to some extent the program laid out by the state and national organizations for the development of music in America.

Mrs. Emma Bartlett, who is the chairman of public school music on the board, spoke particularly of the music memory contest idea and its aim to help children to gain a knowledge and appreciation of good music. "Music," she declared "should first awaken the sensuous feeling for rythm and melody; second, it should be a stimulant to the imagination. As proof of its effect on the imagination of impressionable pupils she read two compositions written by young girls after hearing Rubinstein's Melody in F, and Schumann's "Traumerei."

Mrs. William Mabee, chairman of church music, who followed, dwelt on the aim of the federation to make the music in churches a more worthy and important factor, especially in the small churches, by establishing through the county libraries for their benefit, libraries of music of which choirs could have the use and which would be brought to them by the county library service; also to federate the church choirs and stimulate among them the organization of choral and oratorio societies. Even now this has been accomplished in Santa Ana, she said. A great uplift along this line would follow the organization of such a body of singers as the Handel and Haydn Society which was started in 1815 and put Boston on the musical map by being the first in this country to give the "Messiah," and other oratorios.

Don't think that a girl regrets losing her good name when it is replaced by that of a nice young man.

ORNAMENTAL LIGHTS TO GLOW ALONG ROAD

Propaganda to Show the Advantage of Lamps Finds Favor

There is a movement on foot that if successful will provide ornamental street lights along the San Fernando boulevard from Brand north to Broadway. The idea is to make these electroliers of an ornamental nature so that those passing along San Fernando boulevard at night will realize that they are in the city of Glendale and also that the residents of this city are not asleep.

For the purpose of considering this question a special meeting of the San Fernando Boulevard Improvement association has been called for Thursday evening of next week, this session to start at 7 o'clock and to be held in the office of William Griffin, plumber, 806 South San Fernando road.

This meeting is being called by L. H. Wilson, secretary, who, when speaking of this ornamental lighting system this morning, said:

"There is no question about an ornamental lighting system being needed for San Fernando road. The business men and property owners all along the line feel that something of this kind is needed right away and for this reason we are going to bring the matter up at once and, if possible, push it to a successful conclusion. As this organization was started to bring San Fernando boulevard to the front we are going to do everything in our power to make this thoroughfare one of the most beautiful in Glendale.

"Motorists and others passing along San Fernando boulevard at night find a thoroughfare that is only half lighted and embodies very little that would appeal to them. A system of beautiful multiple-light electroliers along this boulevard from Brand boulevard to Broadway would put some pep to the night life of that section. That is what we want. Our desire is to show the new-comer that we are live ones."

EVERYBODY BUILDS IN GLENDALE TODAY

In 1921 Glendale increased her population from 13,633 to 23,000 and increased her building permits of $3,545,000 in 1920 to $5,055,000 for 1921.

This most enviable record of growth and building during the past year, placed this beautiful suburban home city in the first rank in the United States, in its class.

The prospects now seem to indicate that this wonderful record will be surpassed during 1922.

Another very desirable tract subdivision is now on the market. It is known as "the Glendale Vineyard Lots," located on San Fernando boulevard, the Inland State Highway, between Thompson avenue and Laurel street, and extending North to Fourth street.

This tract is entirely covered with a fine stand of Zinfandel wine grapes in production. The 50-ft. home building lots are selling at a moderate cost, on very easy terms. The location is ideal for homes, and buyers will have a bearing vineyard to supply their home needs.

The business lots in this tract face on San Fernando boulevard, and are also reasonably priced, with generous terms. New stores are now in demand in this vicinity and as building increases this spring a greater demand will be created. This tract is being handled by Gordon L. Freeman, Inc., with offices on the tract, also at 128 North Brand Blvd., and 320 C. C. Chapman Bldg., Los Angeles.

CHANGE BLOWOUT PATCH.

Using a blow-out patch for too long a period is a common mistake and a costly one to motorists. This patch is a car owner's first and best remedy for a blow-out on the road, but it is temporary and not a permanent repair. A blow-out patch is only to assist in the road emergency. After the emergency is past, it should be removed and a permanent one put on.

"Stardust"

Another Fannie Hurst immortal story—like "JUST AROUND THE CORNER" and "HUMORESQUE", this picture touches the heart—it is very human and is filled with love, tragedy, romance, comedy and adventure. Something to talk about! Something to SEE!

WE CAN'T SHOW ALL THE PICTURES—BUT WE DO SHOW THE BEST.
